1. [redacted] the Kenyeri (P48/Y00) airfield [redacted] Jet aircraft were repeatedly observed flying over the field. During the summer of 1953, the villages of Kenyeri and Voenoeck (P48/Y00) were being vacated by Soviet Air Force personnel who were allegedly assembled in a camp in a wood adjacent to the airfield. [redacted] Soviet jet fighters were stationed at the field and that construction work was under way at the installation.<sup>1</sup> 25X1
2. During the spring of 1953, expansion work to the north was under way on the landing field of the commercial airfield, located 2 or 3 km north of Szombathely. No construction work was observed there up to late November 1953. [redacted] by order of the Honved Ministry, large-scale construction was to be started at the field and that the required funds had already been included in the 1953 budget.<sup>2</sup> 25X1
3. [redacted] Air Force Major Istvan Nagy was the commanding officer at Székesfehérvár airfield in 1953. 25X1
  1. [redacted] Comment: It appears credible that Kenyeri airfield is occupied by a Soviet fighter unit. Several previous reports contained information indicating the possible occupation of the airfield by Soviet troops. Improvement work at the field was previously reported. [redacted] 25X1
  2. [redacted] Comment: Szombathely airfield is known as a commercial airfield. Expansion work at the field is reported for the first time. [redacted] 25X1
